

EGIT – Economic Geography and International Trade
Research Meeting, 8th ed.
Munich Feb 24-25, 2017

Call for Papers

Purpose:

Researchers, who are specialized in regional/urban economics and international trade, come together in order to share their ideas and comment on other's research papers. The meeting encourages interaction and discussion between the researchers, so that new ideas and joint projects can be initiated. Any theoretical or empirical paper, discussing the topics of economic geography or international trade, is welcomed. This includes topics in urban economics, regional economics, new economic geography, international trade, international migration, foreign direct investment, and the economics of multinational firms.

Key Note Speaker:

Prof. Toshihiro Okubo, Keio University, Japan

Participants:

This meeting aims at young researchers and Ph.D. students in the field of economic geography and international trade. Senior scholars are invited to participate and take actively part in the discussions and give guidance to younger scholars.

Organizers:

Prof. Gabriel Felbermayr, PhD, Ifo Institute, University of Munich
Prof. Dr. Volker Nitsch, Darmstadt University of Technology
Prof. Dr. Jens Südekum, Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf

Organization and schedule:

Start: Friday, February 24, 2014, early afternoon

End: Saturday, February 25, 2014, after lunch

No conference fee. Participants have to cover their own travel and accommodation costs.
